UNION UNIVERSITY.

Albany Law School.

THE FOUNDERS

The Albany Law School was founded in 1851 by Ira Harris, LL. D., Amasa J. Parker, LL. D., and Amos Dean, LL. D. To perpetuate in a lasting manner what the three founders did for the legal profession, memorial tablets to the memory of each, and in recognition of the services of each, have been erected on the walls in the Library at the school building. On the left is the Harris tablet, in the center the Parker tablet, and on the right the Dean tablet. The three tablets are capped by facial likenesses, and are inscribed as follows. The translations in English, of course, do not appear on the tablets:

" Ubique Patriam Reminisci."
(Everywhere Remember Our Country.)
Ira Harris, LL. D.
Graduated at Union College, Class 1824
Born May 31, 1802
Died December 2, 1875
One of the Founders of the Albany Law School, 1851

" Fideli Certa Merces."
(To the Faithful Reward is Certain)
Amasa J. Parker, LL. D.
Graduated at Union College, Class 1825
Born June 2, 1807
Died May 13, 1890
One of the Founders of the Albany Law School, 1851

" Virtuti Maenia Cedant "
(The Castles Yield to Valor)
Amos Dean, LL. D.
Graduated at Union College, Class 1826
Born January 16, 1803
Died January 26, 1868
One of the Founders of the Albany Law School, 1851
